

LONDON RESILIENT COMMUNITIES

London's diverse communities more resilient in the face of emergencies, through development of community emergency plans and establishment of community resilience hubs

- Online Training & Resources
 - From experts in resilience, exploring different hazards
- Small Grants for Community Resilience
 - £500 to contribute towards developing the Community Emergency Plan
 - £1000 to contribute towards becoming a Community Resilience Hub

PROFESSOR LUCY EASTHOPE

WHAT IS COMMUNITY RESILIENCE?

WHAT DO WE MEAN BY A COMMUNITY?

IT COULD BE ...

- A WhatsApp group on an estate
- An organisation that supports a cultural or diaspora group
- A local volunteer centre
- A pan-London LGBTQ+ support group that meets online
- Worshippers at a mosque, church, temple or other place of worship
- A community garden group
- Parents and carers of children with additional needs

WAYS THAT COMMUNITIES PROVIDE SUPPORT

- A list of people to contact for signposting and advice
- Know how to support with community interpreting
- Holding a social/event to gather people together
- A listening service
- Practical support
- Holding a 'listening' session to capture views and experiences
- Becoming a community resilience hub

"WE ARE ALL IN THE SAME STORM, BUT IN VERY DIFFERENT BOATS"

HOW DID WE GET HERE?

- We are living in times of increasing emergencies
- We know that communities respond to help those in need in emergencies
- We've heard from communities that they need support to engage in resilience work – training, resources and financial support
- London Community Resilience Toolkit
- Community Resilience Hubs Venue Mobilisation Programme

WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE

- ✓ Communities create Community Emergency Plans
- ✓ Venues that serve communities become Community Resilience Hubs

WHAT THIS PROGRAMME WILL INVOLVE

- Online Training & Resources
 - On different hazards, including flooding and extreme heat
 - Other topics such as volunteering and community engagement
- Small Grants for Community Resilience
 - Supporting communities with a structured approach to become more resilient
